

What does web design mean

Web design is the process or designing of a Web page, Web site or Web application. The term generally refers to the graphical side of Web development using images, CSS and XHTML.